Dear Allen:

I've suggested [redacted] for membership in the Council on Foreign Relations. I know you know him and can testify as to how much he would contribute to the Council's work, particularly to its study groups on Far Eastern problems. Won't you second him by writing a few lines to the Membership Committee, Council on Foreign Relations, at this address?

STAT

Ever so many thanks!

Yours sincerely,

Ham

P.S. I enclose a short curriculum vitae.
